ONE°15 TURNS 9

Greetings from the Club! It is a significant time for all of us at ONE°15. On 24 September, we celebrate another milestone, our 9th anniversary. It has been an excellent nine years for us. As we celebrate this special occasion and look back on all our great times, we themed this special issue "Celebration". Join us on a walk down memory lane, discover the people that make our Club a wonderful one and keep up with the latest news at ONE°15.

MARINA NEWS & HAPPENINGS

Our marina has been busy recently, with some of the world's largest yachts berthed here. On page 16, we chat with Captain Nick Baldwin of sailing yacht Beagle Star V that is docked here till 16 September. And on page 20, we catch up with Members Julian and Lisa Theng, owners of catamaran Eagle Wings.

Our marina also hosts over 35 yachts from our chartering arm, ONE15 Luxury Yachting. Recently, we held Festival De Nautique, an open boat showcase. ONE°15 Members, affiliate club members and guests were invited to tour the yachts and discover chartering possibilities. I trust that it was a fun and fruitful day for everyone. Read more about it on page 24.

OUR 9TH ANNIVERSARY

Looking back, ONE°15 has definitely come a long way since our beginnings. Today, we have cemented our reputation as Asia's best marina. Our eco-initiatives have garnered acknowledgement from some of the region's most-recognised environmental agencies. The yachting industry in Asia is growing steadily, with ONE°15 playing a major role. In the spirit of the occasion, we reminisce some of our recent accomplishments on page 12. Don't forget to make a note to celebrate with us at our anniversary bash happening on 24 September. The revelling continues on to 25 September, as our popular Pool Party returns for another edition. More details on these events can be found on pages 28 and 29.

NEW GENERAL MANAGER

I would also like to take this time to introduce the Club's new General Manager, Teo Joo Leng. Joo Leng has close to 16 years experience in the hospitality industry. I am certain that Joo Leng's vast experience and extensive knowledge will take ONE°15 to greater heights. Please join me in welcoming Joo Leng to the team.

Happy Anniversary ONE°15! Thank you for nine great years and here's to many more to come!

Jack Long

SUTL Group General Manager

ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW GENERAL MANAGER

Teo Joo Leng has been appointed as the General Manager of ONE¹⁵ Marina Sentosa Cove, Singapore with effect from 22 August 2016. He takes over from Brian E. Werner, who stepped down on 10 June 2016. Joo Leng will report to SUTL Group General Manager Jack Long.

Joo Leng embarked on his career by joining the Management Associate scheme of Singapore Airlines (SIA). During his nine years at SIA, he assumed various portfolios including operations, sales and regional roles and was selected into the coveted overseas manager programme where he was based abroad to manage the respective SIA offices in Malaysia and India.

In 2010, Joo Leng returned to Singapore to join Far East Hospitality (FEH) where he led the Sales & Marketing team of the Serviced Residences division. His responsibility was then enlarged to include the operations of the serviced residences in Singapore and Malaysia. In early 2013, Joo Leng crossed over to the Hotel division and was appointed as the General Manager of Oasia Hotel, the largest hotel within FEH. From January 2015, Joo Leng concurrently took on the role of Head Corporate Development & Planning and reported directly to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) at FEH. For this role, Joo Leng was tasked with mapping out future expansion plans, spearheading business development and fortifying brand standards for the Group.

Joo Leng graduated from Nanyang Technological University with an Honours (2nd Upper) degree in Communication Studies. He is married with two kids.

The Club is confident that Joo Leng's vast experience and enthusiasm will be an asset to ONE¹⁵ as we continue to grow. Please join us in welcoming him to the team. Joo Leng can be contacted at teojooleng@one15marina.com or 6309 3481 (PA: Pamela Goh).

WHAT'S ON

READY, SET, GO

All eyes are on one of the world's most exciting race – the 2016 Formula 1 Singapore Airlines Singapore Grand Prix. Watch this action-packed event light up the city district and get adrenaline pumping both on-track and off-track. Over the weekend of 16 September, the Marina Bay Street Circuit will be awash with sound, as the best of the best in Formula 1 racing, like Sebastian Vettel and Lewis Hamilton, compete wheel-to-wheel to take home the trophy. As part of the festivities, ticketholders to the night race can enjoy full-length concerts by international headliners. This year's star-studded line-up include Kylie Minogue, Queen + Adam Lambert, KC and the Sunshine Band and Bastille. Tickets and information are available at www.singaporegp.sg.

WICKED THE MUSICAL

Following its successful Singapore premiere back in 2011, Wicked the Musical is back to work its magic. The West End favourite will enchant theatregoers at MasterCard Theatres, Marina Bay Sands from 29 September to 16 October. Set in a world of magic and spells, it tells of an unlikely friendship between two girls – the blonde and popular Glinda and the misunderstood, green-skinned Elphaba. The spectacular show tracks their remarkable odyssey, in which the girls grow to become Glinda The Good and the Wicked Witch of the West from L. Frank Baum's beloved tale "The Wonderful Wizard of Oz". Highly acclaimed, the blockbuster features astounding technical wizardry, over 200 stunning costumes and show-stopping songs like "Defying Gravity" by composer and three-time Academy Award® winner Stephen Schwartz. Tickets are available at SISTIC.

STAMPS OF SINGAPORE

Catch the largest exhibition of Singapore stamps and philatelic items before it ends on 16 October. The Singapore Journey: 50 Years Through Stamps showcase presented by Singapore Philatelic Museum tells the story of Singapore's evolution into a garden city, tracing its birth as an independent nation, capturing the challenges it faced and celebrating its achievements over the years. Visitors of all ages can relive the nation's history with the display of over 240 philatelic artefacts. The list includes unique articles like mint sheets with printing errors. The original artworks of 66 stamps – including that of the first stamp issued by the Republic – can also be viewed for the first time. These items will bring back fond memories for many and inspire the current generation to continue to shape Singapore's future. For more information, go to www.spm.org.sg.

CHEERS TO 9 YEARS

THIS SEPTEMBER, THE CLUB CELEBRATES OUR 9TH ANNIVERSARY. IN THE NINE YEARS SINCE OPENING, WE HAVE MARKED NUMEROUS MONUMENTAL ACHIEVEMENTS. JOIN US IN REMINISCING SOME NOTABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS FROM RECENT YEARS!

STAMP OF QUALITY

*2009, 2012-2014, 2016:
Best Asian Marina of the Year*

ONE°15 Marina Sentosa Cove, Singapore, boasts a fantastic location, great facilities and excellent marina management. In a short span of time since our opening, ONE°15 has been established as one of the top marinas in Asia. At the prestigious Asia Boating Awards, ONE°15 was named Best Asian Marina of the Year a total of five times. This award gives credit to the high standards delivered by the ONE°15 team, and the Club's continuous progress through the years.

BURGEONING YACHTING SCENE

2011-2016: Host of the Annual Singapore Yacht Show

Every year, it's a glitzy affair of superyachts, supercars and all things luxurious. Since its first edition back in 2011, ONE°15 has been a proud host of the annual Singapore Yacht Show. The Singapore Yacht Show is an exclusive event that brings together world-class yachts, glamorous parties, high-end entertainment and luxury products. Through hosting the prominent event, ONE°15 plays an active role in fostering a dynamic and vibrant yachting scene in Asia.

FLOTILLA OF LIGHTS

2014-2016: ONE15 Christmas Boat Light Parade™

In 2014, we launched the first edition of our dazzling festive parade, the ONE15 Christmas Boat Light Parade™. This Christmas extravaganza is Singapore's first parade of lights on water. Boat owners and other participants deck their boats in festive lights and decorations, creating a beautiful flotilla that makes its way from ONE15 to Sentosa Boardwalk and back. The event has had another successful run last year, with this November marking the third. It has become a significant marker of the festive season for many Members, boaters and guests.

A GREEN NOD

2015: Green Maritime Company of the Year

As we build our reputation as a world-class marina, protecting the environment still remains a top priority. Year after year since our inception, ONE15 has actively pioneered eco-initiatives that work towards conserving the environment. Our efforts were recognised when we were named Green Maritime Company of the Year at the 2015 Asia Boating Awards.

RACING EXCELLENCE

2016: Host and Organising Club of SB20 Asian Grand Slam & Asia Pacific Championships

From 28 – 31 January 2016, sailors from 11 nations descended upon ONE°15 to race in the SB20 Asian Grand Slam & Asia Pacific Championships. The event, the third edition of the Asia Pacific Championships, was organised by ONE°15 with the support of the SB20 Class Association and sanctioned by the Singapore Sailing Federation (SSF). Notably, it also marked the first ever Asian Grand Slam – one of only four Grand Slam events throughout the year. We hosted sailors from as far as France, Belgium, Ireland and Great Britain on our exclusive premises during the four days of racing. As it grows bigger each year, the competition is destined to become an iconic event on the Asian sailing calendar.

“Fish-Friendly” Marina

FRIEND TO FISHES

2016: Southeast Asia’s first “Fish-Friendly” ISO 14001 Accredited Marina

We displayed continued commitment to the environment when we became the first ISO 14001 accredited marina in Southeast Asia to attain “Fish-Friendly” status earlier this year. The “Fish Friendly Marina” programme was developed by the New South Wales Department of Primary Industries (DPI) to recognise operators that actively work towards improving fish habitats in the marina. This accreditation is testament to ONE°15’s mindfulness of the need to respect and protect the marina waters and beyond as we go about our daily operations. 🌱

4 QUESTIONS WITH CAPTAIN NICK BALDWIN

Beagle Star V sailed into ONE°15 Marina on 19 July and was welcomed by Marina Manager, Rudy Puystjens. While the superyacht is berthed here, Longitude takes the chance to chat with its captain, Nick Baldwin.

How did you get your start in the yachting industry?

I've always had a passion for sailing. When my siblings and I were young, we went to sailing schools and spent our summers sailing. But I never really did anything with that passion, aside from helping out with mechanical or plumbing works on board. When I was in my twenties, I realised I had a job I didn't actually like. So I saved up and went to a sailing academy in England to get qualified. After that six-month course, I flew to the Mediterranean in the south of France and started knocking on doors to ask if anyone needed any day jobs done on their boat. With a little bit of luck, I got my first job as a deck hand. Eventually I got a job as an engineer on board an 80ft yacht called Coconut. From there, I worked my way up to become captain and after eight years, I left Coconut and now I'm here as captain of Beagle Star V.

What do you love about your job and what makes Beagle Star V a joy to captain?

As captain, I enjoy the challenge of navigating around the world and taking the yacht from one location to another. My wife Zinta is the chef on board, so we get to experience everything together. This yacht is very well designed, so it's a pleasure to sail.

More importantly, the crew and I enjoy a really great relationship with the owner. We're not treated as staff, but rather like family. Beagle Star V is a sailing yacht, so it allows me to put my skills to the test, as opposed to just driving a powerboat. Sailing yachts also have a more relaxed feel about them. At the end of the day, we set up a barbecue on the aft deck. We cook with a beer in hand and chat away with the owner and his family.

How has the experience of docking at ONE°15 Marina been so far?

Fantastic! We always come back to ONE°15. It's already our fourth or fifth time here. It's a well-located marina. The Western Quarantine and Immigration Anchorage is located by Sisters' Islands, which is just a quick motor across from ONE°15. Other than that, it's well-protected, the environment is clean and it has great facilities. We're also close by to the bars and restaurants that surround the marina.

What are your thoughts on Singapore as a sailing destination?

Singapore is a really good destination for maintenance and repair works. You can get any mechanical or electrical work done here. It's located almost at the centre of Asia, so it's a great base to get to other parts of the continent like Langkawi, the Andaman Islands and Raja Ampat. The Owner is a big fan of diving in Raja Ampat, so we always come back here after a trip to get some servicing done on the yacht. Plus, Singapore is such an exciting city with lots happening all the time, so the crew loves being here! 🇸🇬

FACES

Serving with a Smile

F&B SENIOR CAPTAIN CHERRY SUN THRIVES ON MAKING GUESTS HAPPY. THE STAR EMPLOYEE CHATS WITH LONGITUDE ABOUT HER EXPERIENCE AT ONE°15.

L: LONGITUDE C: SENIOR CAPTAIN CHERRY SUN

L: Hi Cherry! You've been with ONE°15 for 7 years and 7 months now. How did this journey first begin?

C: One of my favourite hobbies is travelling. I really enjoy learning about different cultures, so I made the decision to work overseas. I decided on Singapore as I heard many good things about the country. One thing led to another and somehow I ended up here, and I've fallen in love with the Club ever since! I love the scenic and calming view of the marina.

L: What are your job responsibilities and what is a typical day at work like for you?

C: Besides the daily task of serving and attending to guests, I am now tasked to manage the team. Although it's a much bigger responsibility, I am enjoying this new task. I like picking up new skills and I see it as a good way to upgrade myself.

L: What do you love about your job and working at ONE°15?

C: There is always something happening at the Club, whether it's a big event or a small party, which makes the atmosphere very exciting. I have some very lovely colleagues as well. We have a strong sense of team spirit, which pushes me to deliver my best every day.

L: What motivates you to go the extra mile for your guests?

C: It's a great feeling to see guests leave the restaurant smiling after a meal. Sometimes all it takes to make their day is to just greet them with a smile. A smile can change a person's mood, that's why I'm always smiling!

L: You recently won Sentosa's Quarterly Service STAR Award and the Sentosa CEO STAR Award for your quality of service to guests. How did you feel?

C: I was rather surprised when I learnt of the awards as my fellow colleagues have been doing a great job as well. The awards belong to all of us as without my colleagues, I wouldn't have been able to win.

L: What do you do when you're not at work?

C: I am probably reading. I believe that reading is a good way to gain more knowledge. Other than that, I travel a lot with my close friends. Travelling offers a wealth of experiences and that's something that money can't buy. My dream is to work hard and retire early so that I can travel to every part of the world by the time I'm 50!

L: Speaking of age, the Club is celebrating its 9th anniversary. How do you think the Club has grown over the years?

C: ONE°15 has experienced rapid growth despite being relatively young. The ONE°15 brand has grown overseas and we have also won prestigious awards. I am very proud to be a part of the team.

L: Do you have any hopes for the Club for the years ahead?

C: Yes! Currently, ONE°15 holds the title as Best Asian Marina. I hope that one day, the Club will be named the best marina in the world! 🌍

MEMBER FEATURE

ABOARD EAGLE WINGS

The world's first Sunreef Supreme 68 catamaran, Eagle Wings, made its premiere at this year's Singapore Yacht Show. Owners Julian and Lisa Theng show us around the yacht, where they hope the family – and everyone else – can make indelible memories.

It's a little bit past 1pm when the siblings lead the Longitude team down the marina towards their co-owned catamaran, Eagle Wings. The warm afternoon sun is bearing down on us, but Julian and Lisa remain unfazed. In fact, they love the sun and sea.

"We used to go fishing a lot when we were younger," Julian shares as Lisa chimes in, "He's the real fisherman, I just tag along!"

"We had a weekend home near Pasir Ris beach and I used to go fishing and watch all the boats pass by. Sometimes I couldn't find any catch from where I was, so I thought how nice it would be if I could sail out on my own boat," Julian further explains.

And now he can. After tagging along with Lisa to the 2015 Singapore Yacht Show, Julian itched for his own boat. "But Lisa made me promise not to buy one there and then," Julian laughs. "Of course, you have to recce first!" his sister insists.

Eagle Wings is booked for a charter later in the afternoon, but the siblings managed to squeeze us in for a quick tour and chat. "Have you seen the yacht?" Julian asks us excitedly as we walk further along the marina. Eagle Wings is a 68ft multihull catamaran, and incredibly hard to miss. In fact, we're guilty of stopping to stare sometimes. We climb aboard and the staff greets us with a cool towel and a welcome drink. Eagle Wings sure doesn't compromise on hospitality – they even offer us their very own special blend of coffee.

It's an outstanding yacht, complete with floor-to-ceiling windows, four cabins with en-suite bathrooms, a bar, a spacious flybridge and even a lavish jacuzzi. But purchasing such a large catamaran hadn't always been the plan, Julian confesses.

"After the yacht show, I began looking for a simple second hand boat," he recalls. "But when I contacted Sunreef, there was this lady who asked if I would be interested in a new prototype that would be a first in the world. I wasn't very interested at first, but when she started sending me pictures, I was sold."

Opting for a much larger yacht worked out well. A family-oriented man, Julian could take the entire Theng family – which includes his wife and three kids, Lisa, their parents and two other brothers and their families – along on sailing trips. But of course, a bigger boat came with a much higher price tag. And with his packed schedule as an ophthalmologist, he worried that he wouldn't be able to make full use of it. Hence, Lisa and Julian decided to share ownership of the yacht.

"One of the great things of owning a yacht is that we can cater it to all our interests," Lisa says. "For example, there's a mahjong table for our parents, sea sports equipment for the kids, fishing rod holders for those who like to fish. We're also a very musical family hence the karaoke system and the piano in the saloon."

“No matter how busy we get, family is always a priority. Even when our minds are at work, our hearts are always with the kids, with our parents, with our siblings and with each other.” — JULIAN THENG

Still, Lisa, a managing partner at a law firm, has an equally packed schedule of her own. Eventually, they decided to offer Eagle Wings for charter. “If we can’t be on the yacht all the time, it wouldn’t make sense,” Julian says. “Although chartering does help to defray the costs, more than that, it lets us share the experience with others, so they can enjoy it too.”

The charter service has been going well, so much so that just very recently, the siblings added another boat to their fleet. This time, it’s a monohull powerboat that will also be available for charter. “It’s smaller and faster, so it meets different needs. It could be great for those who don’t need too many amenities and just want to go fishing, for example,” Julian explains.

As we sit and chat with the siblings in Eagle Wings’ plush and panoramic saloon, designed by Julian himself, we notice that the two share a very special brother and sister bond, a bond that even Julian admits sometimes feels “too good to be true.” With only a year difference in age – Julian is 48 and Lisa, 49 – the two have always been close.

“Lisa is a very balanced person,” Julian shares. “When she was younger, she excelled in both studies and sports. Even though she’s just a year older than me, I looked up to her. Today, she’s a great aunt to my kids. And that really helps my wife and I to bring them up well.”

Lisa returns the compliments, sharing that it’s Julian’s personable character she admires most. “He is very generous and humble. You can see it from the way he treats his patients. He really cares about them. Being a doctor is a noble profession and he really lives up to it.”

Despite their clashing schedules, the two make it a priority to do things with the whole family. In June, the Thengs embarked on a trip to Nikoi Island, where they snorkelled and fished in the surrounding waters and spent the night singing karaoke on board. Tioman Island is next on their list.

When not at sea, the Club is one of their favourite places for family get-togethers. “My wife and I really enjoy the relaxed atmosphere here. When we first visited the Club, we realised we had been missing out on such a beautiful place,” Julian says. “His daughter celebrated her birthday here too,” Lisa adds. “Yes, we used the function room for her 16th birthday. Then we spent the night at the hotel. It was a really great celebration,” Julian reminisces.

“No matter how busy we get, family is always a priority. Even when our minds are at work, our hearts are always with the kids, with our parents, with our siblings and with each other,” he continues, as Lisa agrees and smiles alongside her brother.

MAGIC SHOW

NATIONAL DAY BONANZA

It was a fun-filled day for the whole family at the Club's National Day carnival held on 9 August. For some, it was a nostalgic trip back in time – one of the highlights at this year's carnival was a favourite local activity, longkang fishing. Guided by their parents and staff stationed at the booth, kids excitedly scooped tiny fishes out from an inflatable pool. The more the merrier, since kids were allowed to bring their catch home as new pets. At the other booths, guests took the opportunity to try their hand at other traditional games like chapteh, got their faces painted with creative designs and indulged in carnival snacks like popcorn and candyfloss.

The fun was doubled over at the Infinity Pool, where a floating inflatable had been set up. The inflatable, an obstacle course, was a thrilling adventure for the little ones as they climbed, clambered and manoeuvred their way across. The Magic Show was also a hit amongst guests. The interactive show was highly entertaining, giving members the chance to go up on stage to help the magician complete some of his tricks.

Keeping spirits high, ONE°15's mascots roved around the Club's premises to greet guests and hand out red and white balloons. There were smiles all around as guests posed for pictures as memorabilia of the day. 📷

FESTIVAL DE NAUTIQUE

With 39 vessels to choose from, ONE15 Luxury Yachting offers the largest fleet available for charter in Singapore. On 21 August, ONE°15 Marina Club Members, affiliate club members and guests were invited to the Club for a special open boat showcase titled Festival De Nautique.

The showcase was an excellent opportunity for those looking to charter a yacht. Guests were able to speak to the yacht charter team to enquire about the fleet or go on a sea trial before deciding to charter a yacht that fits their needs. Enticing more guests to come on board, the yachts also served as venues for an art exhibition by Goshen Art Gallery and a photography display by Theme Photography. A bridal fashion showcase by Putri Mas and White link, and a wedding decoration showcase by Sentimentals were also held on board, giving soon to be brides and grooms some inspiration for their big day.

Aside from yachts, the event also presented a host of activities that kept guests entertained. Some got busy customising their very own candle cups, leather bracelets and mini tees at the various craft activity booths. Others dropped by the Club's Fitness Centre for a complimentary body analysis or tried their hand at mini golf.

The evening concluded with a lucky draw, where winners had their eye on the top prize, a yacht charter worth $3,500. Congratulations to Fiona Carralho, the lucky winner of the day! 🍀

MEMBERS' COCKTAIL RECEPTION

Against the stunning backdrop of the marina, Members of ONE°15 along with their guests gathered at the Rooftop Terrace on 31 August from 6.30pm to 9pm for an evening of networking. The event also served as a formal welcome for new Members who had recently joined ONE°15.

A live band created a lively atmosphere in the air as guests socialised with a drink in hand, courtesy of free flow wine, beer and soft drinks. Guests were also treated to a buffet consisting of enticing dishes like salads, grilled chicken quesadilla, grilled wagyu minute steak, salted egg prawn, pasta and desserts. The night culminated with a lucky draw where guests had the opportunity to take home attractive prizes. With a picturesque location, tantalising menu and the participation of our remarkable guests, the evening was indeed a true success. 🍷 of those who have stayed at our Rooms felt that recent refurbishments exceed/meet expectations

felt that the Club's restrooms/changing rooms can be improved

92%

rated that the refurbishment of LATITUDE Bistro exceeds/meets expectations

ONE°15 has made significant changes to the Club's facilities to improve the experience of Members and guests over the months. For one, the Constellation Ballrooms underwent a weeklong refurbishment and now sports new carpeting, wall furniture and lighting. With a new colour palette of gold, brown, gray and white, the ballrooms exude timeless elegance for the grandest weddings or business seminars, yet retaining a touch of modernity for upbeat cocktail parties. In keeping with the marina theme, the new lightings were designed to emanate the calming and soothing effect of ocean waves.

The adjoining pre-function area also underwent a major touch-up with new floorings, lightings, furniture and wall decorations. The carefully selected materials, colour scheme and details – from the shimmering fabric on the upholstered wall panels to the effervescent texture of the ocean-coloured carpet and boat-inspired round brass door handles – conspire to create a fresh new space to be experienced.

The Club also recently refurbished and converted the Youth Playroom into an arcade room. ONE°15 partnered with Timezone to bring in old school arcade games, enhancing the enjoyment and pleasure of children.

E-CLASS AMG LINE

INTO THE Future

WITH TECHNOLOGIES NO OTHER CAR HAS OFFERED YET, THE NEW MERCEDES-BENZ E-CLASS REDEFINES TODAY'S DRIVING POSSIBILITIES. HERE'S A CLOSER LOOK AT THE CAR'S MOST IMPRESSIVE FEATURES.

E-CLASS AVANTGARDE

It's an intelligent car, so driving is made easier.

Of course, the Mercedes-Benz E-Class is by no means a self-driving car. But it's close enough. The E-Class takes a bold step towards autonomous driving. Equipped with Drive Pilot, the car automatically maintains the correct distance to vehicles in front. It can also follow traffic ahead in its lane at speeds up to 210km/h. What this means is that the driver no longer has to operate the brake or accelerator pedal during normal driving. Being stuck in traffic is now a less stressful situation.

Safety-wise, each car is fitted with Active Brake Assist to help warn the driver of any impending collisions, provide optimum support with emergency braking and if necessary, even autonomously apply the brakes. Active Lane Keeping Assist helps prevent unintentional lane changing. The car even knows when you're tired – when a long day results in inattentiveness and drowsiness behind the wheel, the car's Attention Assist system picks up the signs to emit an audible and visible alert.

It looks out for you, with a little nudge at the sides.

In the event that the car gets broadsided, PRE-SAFE® Impulse Side has you covered. This system automatically moves the driver and passengers away from the side when a lateral collision occurs. It does so by inflating an air chamber located on either side of the front seats, thus increasing the distance between the occupants and door. One less thing to worry about while being on the road.

It takes care of even the smallest details, details you wouldn't have thought of.

Taking things up a notch, Mercedes-Benz debuts its all-new PRE-SAFE® Sound technology in the new E-Class. The nitty gritty aside, this system basically works to protect your ears in the case of an imminent crash. When the sensors of the car detect that an impact is highly probable, PRE-SAFE® Sound emits a short interference signal through the vehicle's sound system, triggering the natural human reflex and thus preparing the driver for the expected sound of an accident. Mercedes is most definitely pushing the envelope in automotive safety.

It does help that it looks good too.

The car's intelligence is boosted by its good looks. The executive saloon is sophisticated and confidently stylish. It boasts a muscular front and broad shoulders above the rear wheel to command a powerful presence. The interior sports a refined, sporty look with ergonomic, sculptural seats. You can even choose from 64 ambient lights to suit your mood for the day. Or get the attention of people you drive by.

All in all, the E-Class is definitely a technological wonder. All that's left to do is to wait and see if it will dominate the business-class segment. 📞

SNEAK PEEK

Two hotly-anticipated, ultra-exclusive supercars will make their world debuts later in the year. Longitude gets the scoop on these rare beauties.

BLAST FROM THE PAST

Like a ghost from the past, the legendary Jaguar XKSS is set to make a return – 59 years later. Often dubbed as the world's first supercar, Jaguar originally made the XKSS in 1957 as a road-going version of the Le Mans winning D-type. Famous owners include the late Steve McQueen. More could have owned the supercar; 25 had already been earmarked for export to the U.S when disaster struck. A fire broke out at Jaguar's factory in Brown Lane and with that, nine of the 25 cars were destroyed.

Now, Jaguar will build from scratch the nine XKSS sports cars lost in the fire for a select group of established collectors and customers. The swoopy two-seaters will be handcrafted by Jaguar Classic's expert technicians, manufactured right down to exact specifications of those produced in 1957. The cars are in no way merely a replica. They are referred to as continuation cars instead. The XKSS will make its world debut presentation at the opening of the Los Angeles Auto Show in November.

Getting your hands on one of them might prove to be challenging though. All nine have been sold, with first deliveries to customers planned for early 2017. You'll also need some deep pockets – a historic car like the XKSS is an indulgence that will cost well into the millions.

LAFERRARI GOES TOPLESS

How can the Prancing Horse make its hybrid sports car, the LaFerrari, even better? By removing the lid, of course. After much speculation and rumours, Ferrari confirmed that it is indeed building an open-top version of its spellbinding supercar. The new car will make its debut at the Paris International Motor Show in October.

Aside from the fact that Ferrari is taking one of its most ambitious cars al fresco, not much else is known for now. The name and technical characteristics of the car is kept under wraps and will only be announced during its debut in Paris.

What we do know is the new limited edition special series will be available with a removable carbon-fibre hardtop and removable soft top. It mirrors the original LaFerrari as much as possible, with the same running gear and performance figures as the original. Some significant modifications have been made to the chassis in order to retain the same torsional rigidity and beam stiffness as the coupé version.

Ferrari hasn't yet revealed how many it will build, but in true Ferrari fashion, the car has already been shown to a hand-selected group of clients and collectors before the news was made public. And you guessed it – they are all sold out. 🚗

CRUISING THAILAND

Picture clear warm waters and outrageously gorgeous tropical islands. That's the sight that will greet you as you weave your way through the Gulf of Thailand on board a yacht. Here are the top three areas to cruise.

ONE°15 RECIPROCAL CLUB, ROYAL VARUNA YACHT CLUB

PATTAYA

Start off your trip from the bustling town of Pattaya. World-renowned for its nightlife, Pattaya is now making waves as a sailing destination, thanks to its easy access to numerous pristine islands located both along and off its coast.

When in Pattaya, pay a visit to Royal Varuna Yacht Club (RVYC), a reciprocal club of ONE°15 where Members can enjoy exclusive privileges.

This family-oriented club offers year-round cruising programmes to nearby islands like Koh Larn. Also known as Coral Island, Koh Larn is located around two hours away from the club and is well endowed with translucent blue waters and an abundance of coral and marine life. This wonderful little island is a less crowded alternative to the popular Pattaya Beach. On your day trip to Koh Larn, do some water sports, try out parasailing and tuck in to the deliciously fresh catch of the day served up by restaurants in the area. Other destinations on RVYC's itinerary include the smaller island of Koh Sak and the unspoiled island of Koh Phai.

The club also has its own boats for hire – Laser, Hobie, Optimist, RS Quba and RS Vision – available for cruising and racing. 'Fret not if you don't know how to sail. You can easily pick up the skill here, with sailing classes available for adults. Engage the kids and enroll them in junior sailing programmes available during the holidays.

KOH CHANG

Those with a couple of days on their hands can consider taking a trip further down Pattaya to the Koh Chang archipelago, an area surrounded by crystal clear waters, breathtaking coastline scenery and majestic rainforest covered mountains. Still relatively untouched by tourism, Koh Chang retains a rugged spirit. The archipelago here is teeming with over 50 islands, the most popular being Koh Chang Island, Thailand's second biggest island after Phuket. This island, along with 43 others, make up the picturesque Koh Chang National Park. Diving and snorkelling are on the cards here, thanks to abundant marine life and pristine coral reefs found in the waters.

Venture out of the marine park to outlying islands like Koh Kood. Bask in the quiet and tranquil surroundings of this island, courtesy of its remote location. For a taste of local island life, pay the traditional fishing village of Ao Salad a visit. Ao Salad is one of the few developments of any kind in the area. The more adventurous ones can consider venturing further inland on a trek to the postcard-worthy Klong Chao Waterfall. This natural cascade flows into a large pool, where many visitors jump in for freshwater swimming.

KOH SAMUI

Koh Samui is perhaps the more commercialised version of Koh Chang, but still a must-visit with endless bays and rocky coves waiting to be discovered. For some beach time, head to Samui's most popular stretch of powdery white sand – Chaweng Beach. This beach offers great swimming and plenty of water sports. It can get a little bit crowded, so when night falls, escape the crowd and anchor at one of the many deserted bays in the area.

If you're looking for paradise, sail to the nearby Ang Thong National Marine Park. It's an idyllic scene – azure waters gently lap against the edges of thick, forested islands with powdery white sand. 42 islands and limestone massifs comprise this protected archipelago. Here, get on a kayak and explore caves and tunnels carved out of the limestone cliffs. Don't forget to stop by Koh Mae Koh, or Mother Island, home to the breathtaking Emerald Lake. This vivid green seawater lake is surrounded entirely by steep-sided cliffs, creating a perfect backdrop for photo taking.

Cruising around the Koh Samui region also includes neighbouring island Koh Phangan. Koh Phangan boasts a number of secluded bays along its coastline, only reachable by boat. It's also famous for its beautiful rock formations. The island of Koh Tao is not one to leave out as well. Koh Tao, which translates to Turtle Island, got its name for its once abundant turtles. Today, it still draws sea-loving divers with the possibility of encountering a whale shark.

PITSTOP:
BANGKOK

After your cruising holiday, add the city of Bangkok to your itinerary to wrap up your trip to Thailand. Located just two hours away from Pattaya, Bangkok is an excellent stopover if you need to catch a flight back home. Shopping, visiting ornate palaces and ancient temples, and sampling delicious Thai cuisine are some activities to check off your to-do list in this sprawling metropolis.

When in Bangkok, make a stop at the Pacific City Club, a reciprocal club of ONE°15. This prestigious club is located on the top three floors of the impressive Two Pacific Place in central Bangkok. Dine in style over glorious views of Bangkok at Pacific City Club's F&B establishments. Opt for international cuisine at The Dining Room, go for Cantonese specialties at Sai Si or head to The Bar for good food coupled with delectable tipples.

To relax your muscles after days on the sea, indulge in a massage session at The Spa at Pacific City Club. Guests can find everything from Swedish to Sports massages. Highly recommended is the spa's signature Pacific Oriental Blend. This massage combines Thai stretching techniques with classic Swedish-influenced oil therapy to deliver deeply relaxing and energising results. Surely the best way to wrap up your Robinson Crusoe adventure. 📍
