WELCOMING 2018

Greetings to all Members, we are glad to enter the new year alongside you. 2017 had been an especially memorable year for us. We celebrated our 10th anniversary in September, marking 10 years of making waves as Asia's finest marina – something that we could not have done without your unwavering support. Moving forward in 2018, we are looking to elevate the Club to greater heights, and bring greater satisfaction to Members.

ONE15 CHRISTMAS BOAT LIGHT PARADE™

Rounding up 2017 in style, we had our fourth edition of the ONE15 Christmas Boat Light Parade™. Members and guests alike enjoyed a delightful evening, soaking in Christmas cheer amidst the glittering display of charmingly decorated boats. Besides the light display, there was also a variety of riveting activities designed for participants of all ages, including fun-filled carnival games and the much-anticipated Christmas Tree Light Up. Relive the highlights on page 12.

If you are still undecided, perhaps our guide on page 34 can help with your plans.

This season, we would also like to express our appreciation and gratitude for your warm support over the past year. I hope you can join us at our annual Chinese New Year Appreciation Dinner and Lion Dance on 7 and 18 February respectively, as we usher in the Year of the Dog together. More details can be found on page 27.

Lastly, the staff and I would like to wish all Members a Happy New Year! Gong Xi Fa Cai, we look forward to welcoming you at the Club in the year ahead!

An Enchanting Christmas Prelude

KICKING OFF THE FESTIVE SEASON WITH A HOST OF YULETIDE ACTIVITIES, ONE¹⁵ PULLED OUT ALL THE STOPS WITH THE ONE15 CHRISTMAS BOAT LIGHT PARADE™, WHICH STOLE THE SHOW AND LIT UP THE NIGHTS AT SENTOSA COVE WITH A SPECTACULAR DISPLAY.

On 18 and 19 November, ONE¹⁵ Marina Sentosa Cove threw the doors open to welcome both Members and guests to a weekend of Christmas fun and merriment. The revelries began before sundown with the LED Pool Party. Merrymakers grooved to the beats of guest DJs Nicole Chen, Leon Ong, and Yang & Dangerous, as they had fun with water inflatables in the Infinity Pool.

On the boardwalk, visitors enjoyed soaking in the Christmas atmosphere at the Sentosa Cove Holiday Market. Jointly organised by the Club and Sentosa Cove Resort Management, the Holiday Market featured over 20 stalls and a wide selection of holiday gifts and treats. Shoppers were spoilt for choice.

Giant inflatables like the pirate ship bouncy castle and snow globe kept the young ones entertained, eliciting much delight. Participants also tried their hand at carnival games, spreading Christmas cheer while playing—as proceeds went towards the beneficiaries of the Association of Persons with Special Needs (APSN).

As night fell on 18 November, everyone present turned their attention to the ONE15 Christmas Boat Light Parade™ static display. The seven participating boats wowed the crowd with a dazzling spectacle, enlivening the spirit of Christmas at Sentosa Cove and ending the first day of the festivities on an unforgettable note.

The festive cheer continued unabated on the second day. Entertainers dressed as Santa Claus, Nutcracker Drummers and more heightened the lively atmosphere, charming visitors on land. Out at sea, beneficiaries of the National Kidney Foundation (NKF) embarked on a joy ride aboard Anka, a Bondway Wide Haul yacht, enjoying a specially prepared meal while they took in the sights.

Towards evening, Members gathered for a special Members' Night. As Members relaxed over free-flow snacks and drinks, the ONE¹⁵ team got things off to a rousing start with a round of Christmas songs, led by General Manager Teo Joo Leng. Carollers from Anglo Chinese Junior College then serenaded the crowd with nostalgic favourites, drawing applause from all present.

In the joyful atmosphere, all eyes turned to Arthur Tay, Chairman of SUTL Group, who was invited to initiate the much-anticipated Christmas Tree Light Up ceremony. Everyone watched with bated breath as the lights winked on amidst the falling snow, throwing a magical glow on the Club and creating a moment to be cherished.

The lighting of the Christmas Tree also signalled the beginning of the climax of the weekend—the Boat Parade. In anticipation of the Symphony of Horns, the crowd moved towards the waterside to get a front row view of the happenings. Sounding the air horn from Hye Seas II, Chairman Arthur Tay got the ball rolling as the other boats followed suit.

Setting sail from ONE¹⁵ Marina, the gaily-decorated flotilla of 12 boats continued past iconic landmarks like Siloso Beach and Resorts World Sentosa. Arriving to loud cheers from the crowd gathered at VivoCity, the boats were evaluated by a panel of judges at Harbourfront Cruise Bay. It was a difficult decision as participants had evidently outdone themselves in the competition for the top prize.

Back at the Club, the fun continued with non-stop gaiety, as a live band performance by Sweatshop Jam entertained all by the poolside. With spirits at its height, winners of ONE¹⁵ Christmas Boat Light Parade™ were announced. After much deliberation, Lady Quikglow I emerged as the Best of Show Winner for Static Display, whereas Hye Seas II was awarded Best of Show Winner for Boat Parade. The euphoric winners walked away with cash prizes, complimentary boat polishing services and berthing credits. The first and second prize winners of each category also received their own share of the rewards.

As the night wound to a close, it was clear that ONE¹⁵ Christmas Boat Light Parade™ was a resounding success. The delightful combination of Christmas cheer, wonderful company and the extraordinary vista of the Boat Light Parade made this a weekend to remember for years to come. 🕒

CALL OF THE SEA

Asian tourism is growing in tandem with the region's booming economies. SUTL Enterprise's Arthur Tay believes that these travellers will be entranced by the waterfront lifestyle. Hong Xinyi reports.

“For each marina that we are targeting to acquire, or develop and manage through joint ventures, we are very sensitive and mindful that they must have different personalities.” – ARTHUR TAY, CHAIRMAN OF SUTL GROUP

Arthur Tay lights up when he talks about the life aquatic. “Each coastline is unique,” he says. “The colour of the water is different, there are different types of fish, diving spots and island landscapes.” It is a vivid picture sketched by a man who has a unique affinity with a less discussed side of Singapore—not the gleaming city-state bristling with skyscrapers, but the sunny island set in the sea.

The executive director and CEO of SUTL Enterprise describes himself as a “West Coast Teochew boy”, whose childhood in Pasir Panjang meant “I grew up loving the beach”. His late father, Tay Choon Hye, founded SUTL in 1968 as a shipchandelling company, and Arthur tagged along with him to learn the business of supplying goods and services to the incoming and outgoing ships in Singapore’s bustling port. (Arthur’s first and second yachts, Hye Seas I and II, are named after his dad.) As a young man, he picked up waterskiing in the Punggol river. He remains an avid diver today. “I was always exposed to water and the outdoor life. You are at one with the elements, and really removed from the stress of life in the city.”

Today, we are chatting at ONE°15 Marina Sentosa Cove—his first foray into marina development when it opened in 2007. The club celebrated its 10th anniversary this year with a wealth of accolades and accomplishments under its belt, including being a six-time winner of the Best Asian Marina of the Year award bestowed by Asia Boating Awards. It has also hosted prestigious events such as the Volvo Ocean Race, the Singapore Yacht Show, the UIM F1 Powerboat Championship Grand Prix, the Clipper Round the World Yacht Race, the Earth Race, the SB20 Asia Grand Slam and the Singapore Straits Regatta.

SUTL Enterprise is now a leading developer, operator and consultant of integrated marinas all over the world, and the only marina business to be listed on the Singapore Exchange. Through its partnerships, the ONE°15 brand has been extended to marinas in Brooklyn in the US and Puteri Harbour in Malaysia, with upcoming developments in Pantai Mutiara in Indonesia and Guishan in China. If Arthur has his way, there will be many more ONE°15 marinas in the future, both in traditional yachting destinations in Europe as well as newer locations in Asia. In September this year, SUTL Enterprise announced a partnership with the Hainan Cruise & Yacht Association for the development and expansion of the Chinese island province’s yachting, cruising and marina tourism industry.

“For each marina that we are targeting to acquire, or develop and manage through joint ventures, we are very sensitive and mindful that they must have different personalities,” he notes. To shape these distinct personalities, he takes his cue from each marina’s context—the culture of the surrounding communities, the topography of the coastline, and the nature of the water body that laps at its berths. “If it is a river, you can have cruises. If it is a lake, you can have romantic boat rides for couples,” he says.

Essentially, a marina is about a lot more than mooring yachts. “It is actually a lifestyle,” Arthur believes. “It is a place to hold weddings, where you can wine and dine, and just relax near the water. You can see the seagulls coming close to you, and in a coastal area you can stay away from roads and traffic jams. That is what a marina really means.”

EYE ON ASIA

Communicating the charms of this lifestyle to Asian travellers will be crucial for the growth of the ONE°15 brand. In China alone, about 128 million people holidayed overseas in 2015. "Paying attention to Chinese travellers is a no-brainer," says Arthur. According to the World Travel and Tourism Council, China's travel industry is projected to grow at an average rate of eight per cent annually from 2017 to 2027, outpacing other major economies such as India and the US. "Growing a business is about scalability. We are not focusing just on China, but it is natural that we expand into China as a first strategic move. Then, we will look at Thailand, Indonesia, Korea, and Japan, and the other Asian countries," he says, noting in particular Indonesia and Thailand's long coastal lines and the latter's great diving and fishing spots. "Generally, I believe Asians will dominate global travel. They will be the ones indulging in holiday pursuits in Europe, America, Australia and Africa. We think Asians are the next influx of tourism, and I want to teach them that spending time at our marinas can be as much of an indulgence as shopping in a big city."

To entice these Asian travellers, he is banking on the strengths of ONE°15 as a Singaporean brand that understands what the Asian customer wants, particularly in the realm of hospitality. "Asian hospitality is the best," he declares. "We host better, we serve people better, we go all the way to make the customer happy. The Asian customer likes to be served, rather than have self-service meals, and we understand details such as the kind of breakfast they like to have. We want to provide all our members and visiting tourists with first-class service and attention, and that will be what makes our brand different. Whatever properties we manage and acquire, they will have the ONE°15 membership and service."

*"Don't waste time,
get first-mover advantage."*

That means facilities that have excellent safety and security standards, “and good food”, he adds, true to his Singaporean roots. “We don’t do short-term thinking, because we are a long-term player. We know the right formula, and we are now moving ahead of a lot of other players.” Creating a string of marinas in the region and beyond will build connectivity for ONE°15 members, who want to be assured of consistent quality wherever they berth.

To accomplish this though, there remains the challenge of untangling complex regulations for marina development in overseas markets. But Arthur is confident about tackling these issues. “We know how to handle the local challenges,” he assures, pointing to his decades of experience in the world of business. “That is my skill. Through a lot of engagement, we can find a win-win solution and make sure that we can deliver what we want to do. I have been running my own business my whole life, and I have been exposed to all kinds of countries, from Mongolia to Afghanistan, you name it. I am sensitive to cultural differences and attentive to consumer needs. We can resolve these challenges.”

Indeed, the SUTL Group, which is the majority shareholder of SUTL Enterprise, is one of the first Singaporean conglomerates to venture into Vietnam. In 1996, it established the first shopping centre in Ho Chi Minh City, Superbowl Vietnam Tan Son Nhat, introducing an integrated lifestyle entertainment concept that included a 32-lane bowling alley. “We are pioneers,” Arthur says proudly. “We went into Vietnam before the property and hotel developers, so we had first-mover advantage. We could secure better sites, better partners, and better licences before others did. I approach marina development in the same way. Don’t waste time, get first-mover advantage.”

DEALING WITH DISRUPTION

What could throw a spanner into the works for all these grand plans? Arthur cites factors such as technological changes and the high cost of materials and labour as potential challenges that the company is prepared to grapple with. From a macro perspective, with climate change expected to create more challenging weather conditions in the years ahead, he also acknowledges that those in the marina business must plan for stronger infrastructure and make sustainability a keystone of their corporate social responsibility programmes.

In 2016, the Marina Industries Association named the Level 4 Clean Marina ISO 14001-certified club Southeast Asia’s first fish-friendly marina, and it was also named Green Maritime Company of the Year at the Asia Boating Awards 2015. Further afield, SUTL works with its foreign partners to implement eco plans for its overseas projects, which could include cleaning up the surrounding waters and launching education initiatives regarding local aquatic species.

Closer to home, Singapore’s strategic geographic location—the same strength that made SUTL’s early ship-chandelling business viable—no longer seems like an inevitability. There is talk of the Arctic routes opening up, and some chatter about a potential Kra Isthmus Canal in Thailand. Meanwhile, ongoing territorial disputes in the South China Sea and new ports in the region competing for hub status all contribute to uncertainty over the continued vibrancy of Singapore as a key maritime trading node. “I believe Singapore’s port will continue to be relevant,” Arthur says. “We have the best security and very efficient infrastructure, so we score very well in terms of resources. We must leverage our strengths, and integrate and balance that with the strengths of our neighbouring countries.”

For enterprises here that are looking to expand, however, Arthur’s advice is that “you have to go overseas, because the market here is very limited in terms of size. You have to see business opportunities that are beyond Singapore. Don’t just stand still. Go out, travel, and take calculated risks”.

He is certainly not standing still. “We are all ready for a new wave of opportunity. We have a lot in the pipeline that we will be able to share soon, and we are very excited,” he reveals. A clue: “We believe every club we own must have an iconic and unique event that will attract international visitors.” And where better to host such an event than ONE°15 Marina Sentosa Cove, the place where this whole adventure started? “It is one of the most unique lifestyle clubs in Singapore and we are very happy that our members feel we have delivered what we promised, and more,” Arthur says, at ease in his waterfront haven. “I want to create more of these assets around Asia.” 📍

IT'S HAPPENING. IT'S YOUR CHANCE TO BID FOR A MEMBERSHIP NUMBER.

The savvy ONE°15 Member knows that prestige and prominence are two very important things in life.

This is because everyone knows that auspicious numbers can only belong to owners with stellar profiles.

Sail in to a prosperous 2018 with an auspicious membership number with the Club.

Bidding can be done at your convenience from now till 31 January 2018 by completing the bidding form that has been sent to your mailing address.

The best thing is that you set a price you're comfortable paying and you will only be charged if your bid is successful.

WHAT'S YOUR NUMBER?

Numbers play a significant role in our lives. From culturally significant numbers to personal lucky numbers, many believe that numbers have the power to bring prosperity and in some cases, prestige.

As such, many have chosen to surround themselves with their favourite numbers with customised car license plate numbers and phone numbers. For the first time, Members can now do the same with their membership numbers, and bid for the number of their choice. Longitude tells you how in five easy steps.

STEP 1

CHOOSE YOUR NUMBER!

Referring to the guidelines that come with the membership number bidding form, make a list of your favourite numbers. If you can't just decide on one, don't worry, as you can submit up to 10 choices in order of preference.

STEP 2

DECIDE HOW MUCH YOU WANT TO BID.

With minimum bids starting at $1,000 and increments in multiples of $10, you can bid as you like. However, be warned, as there is bound to be stiff competition for popular numbers.

STEP 3

RANK THEM IN ORDER OF PREFERENCE.

If you are submitting multiple bids, be sure to list them in order of preference. Successful bids will be awarded based on highest bid amount, followed by order of preference.

STEP 4

FILL IN AND SUBMIT THE MEMBERSHIP NUMBER BIDDING FORM.

If you haven't received the form in the mail, simply pick up a copy at the Club's Front Desk. Complete it and verify your bids as they cannot be withdrawn and revised downwards once submitted. Drop your form in the secured submission box at the Front Desk before 31 January 2018.

STEP 5

Successful bidders will be announced at the Club's Chinese New Year Appreciation Dinner on 7 February 2018, so make sure you don't miss it! Otherwise, the lucky winners will also be notified via email. 📧

EVENING AT THE RACECOURSE

On 13 October, Members spent an exciting night out at the races at the Singapore Turf Club. Up in the Bukit Box, the unobstructed view of the action and exclusive outdoor area gave participants a taste of the electrifying atmosphere of horse racing. For many, it was a memorable and eye-opening experience as it was their first visit to the racecourse. Catching up with one another over dinner and drinks, Members also took the opportunity to get up close and personal to the horses and jockeys in a Parade Ring Tour. 📍

Few things can be quite as intoxicating as the heady combination of sparkling diamonds and fine whisky. At a closed-door Diamond and Whisky Appreciation event hosted by Infiniti Jewels on 28 October, Members sampled sought-after limited editions of Macallan Scotch whisky as they appraised the exquisite diamond pieces on display. WINE DISCOVERY

PARTICIPANTS LISTEN INTENTLY AS THE BASICS OF WINE APPRECIATION ARE EXPLAINED

Good wine is one of life's greatest pleasures, and on 9 November, some of our Members took the first step towards becoming wine connoisseurs at a wine tasting session conducted by The French Cellar. Savouring four different varieties of wine, participants were taken through the basics of wine appreciation, learning about methods of identifying distinctive wine characteristics, ideal food pairings, serving temperatures and appropriate lengths of storage. Members ended the event on a satisfying note as they put their skills to the test in a fun-filled challenge to detect the aroma compounds in an unknown wine. 🍷

Welcome a year of prosperity and success as you celebrate the Lunar New Year with auspicious treats at WOK°15 Kitchen.

FOUR TIPS FOR SAFETY

It’s the end of the year, and spirits are high at the Club. As you enjoy yourself, remember to practise safe habits so that no one gets hurt. Here are four handy reminders for the season. 🍊

Slippery slopes make braking in time difficult, so dismount from bicycles when going down the ramp to the Members’ car park to avoid crashes.

Be sure to park your bicycles and buggies at designated spots, to avoid unnecessary obstructions in times of emergency.

Waterside activities may be fun, but make sure that children in the Marina are accompanied and supervised at all times by adults.

Wild monkeys are prone to biting and scratching, which may result in painful visits to the doctor. Avoid this by not feeding the monkeys at the tennis courts.

DEAR BOATERS

A Boaters’ Meeting has been held on 16 December 2017 sharing the rates and changes to 2018’s berthing agreement, and a letter has been sent to boaters about the changes and terms of renewal. If you have not received any of the above information, do contact the Marina Office at 6305 6991 or email cr@one15marina.com. 🍊

SPOT THE CLOCKS!

Timepieces from Audemars Piguet are amongst some of the world's most coveted. Just as desired as the watches are the Swiss manufacturer's elegant and sophisticated clocks, much admired by brand enthusiasts and rarely seen in public. These clocks are a rarity, but you can view a collection of Audemars Piguet Royal Oak Offshore clocks right at the Club. See if you can spot them on your next visit! Hint: To help you get started, one of the locations they can be found at is the first place you enter upon stepping into the Club. The name of this location translates to 'sun'.

ELEMENT OF TIME

While clocks are a necessity in every home, their function can very well go beyond the practical. Those ingeniously designed, such as the Jaeger-LeCoultre Atmos Classique, prove that a time-telling device can also be a work of art. Using nothing more than atmospheric pressure to keep itself running, the Atmos Classique has achieved perpetual movement. Each time the air temperature rises or falls, the mechanism stores energy for up to 48 hours of function. Housed in a see-through glass cabinet, the Atmos lets you gaze dreamily at its intoxicatingly captivating mechanical movements. www.jaeger-lecoultre.com

Festive Feasting for Chinese New Year

THE ANNUAL REUNION DINNER IS AN OPPORTUNE TIME TO RENEW FAMILY BONDS WHILE INDULGING IN THE BEST DELICACIES OF THE SEASON. TORN BETWEEN EATING OUT OR EATING IN? LET US HELP YOU MAKE A DECISION.

PERKS OF EATING OUT

1 Avoid the Hassle

Cooking a meal is a tedious affair. And to cook an elaborate one for the entire extended family doubles the amount of time needed. Eating out means you don't have to do any preparation. Just leave it to the professionals, and the plus point is you won't have to worry about the quality of food.

2 Enjoy the Ambiance

During the Chinese New Year period, restaurants tend to up the ante with tasteful decorations and festive music playing in the background. Why not soak in the atmosphere as you and your family members indulge in exquisitely crafted food? After all, the reunion dinner is a once in a year affair.

3 Choose from Different Options

Thanks to the vibrant culinary scene in Singapore, there are plenty of restaurants to choose from. A wide variety of Chinese food is available and diners can opt for Cantonese cuisine, Hokkien delights or Hainanese favourites. Families can even decide between having steamboat or cooked dishes. The options are endless.

REUNION DINNER WITH A VIEW

While Singapore has a wide variety of restaurants to choose from during the Chinese New Year period, none boast a view quite like WOK*15 Kitchen, located conveniently on the Club's premises. While treating the family to exquisite Cantonese style dishes known for their subtle yet distinctive taste, admire the view of luxurious yachts docked at the marina.

This season, WOK*15 Kitchen presents three different menus to choose from. The Reunion Set menu offers delicate dishes such as Steamed Live Marble Goby in Light Soy Sauce together with savoury dishes such as Sautéed Live Prawns with Salted Egg Yolk. For bigger groups, the Prosperity Set Menu entices with comforting selections including the Double-Boiled Japanese Chicken Soup with Himematsutake Mushroom. The menu also comes with the 8 Head Abalone with Oyster Sauce, a luxurious CNY season must-have.

For a true treat for the family, opt for the Fortune Set Menu that features premium seafood such as the Steamed Live Garoupa in Light Soy Sauce and Singapore Live Prawns with Fried Mantous. The meal is rounded off with a cooling and refreshing bowl of Mango with Sago and Pomelo.

PERKS OF EATING IN

1 Customise Your Meal

Restaurants often offer different set menus for diners to choose from. Though these menus include all the important dishes necessary for the reunion dinner, mixing and matching is usually not allowed. Dining at home gives you the freedom to customise your own menu to suit your taste buds and preferences.

2 Save On Cost

The popularity of eating out for the reunion dinner these days has spurred restaurants to increase their Chinese New Year menu prices during this period. So although cooking at home may be more tedious, it could also potentially help you save on cost, especially when you have a large extended family.

3 Dine in Comfort

Nothing beats the comfort of your own home. There is no need to dine with other strangers, or struggle to hear each other above the noise. And while restaurants typically give diners a certain time slot to finish their meal, eating at home means you have the flexibility of taking your time and enjoying the warmth of one another's company.

CHINESE NEW YEAR TAKEAWAY FAVOURITES

This year, enjoy a fuss-free celebration at home when you allow WOK°15 Kitchen to handle the food selection. Thoughtfully crafted and prepared from the best ingredients, the restaurant's takeaway menu allows you to enjoy restaurant quality food right at home. Delicacies featured in the menu include Sautéed Scallops with Egg White and Truffle Oil, Sautéed Prawns with Wasabi Sauce and Crispy Squid with Salt and Pepper. The menu also lets you choose between two flavourful selections of Double-Boiled Chicken Soup with Tian Shan Snow Lotus and Boiled Lotus Root Soup with Dried Oysters.

These dishes also make for auspicious gifts to bring along during house visiting. Discover more options in our takeaway menu on the opposite page and place your orders in time for the Lunar New Year! 🍲

NATURE ESCAPES

One of the best ways to reset for a new year is to take a break from the urban landscape. These places let you catch a breather as you immerse in the splendour of Earth's natural beauty.

SERENE GREENS

Manila, the capital city of the Philippines, is known to be one of the most densely populated cities in the world, but its surrounding provinces are blessed with spectacular natural scenery that are a stark contrast to the city life. One of which is Batangas, a popular tourist destination one and a half hours away from Metro Manila. Located in Batangas' Lipa City is the Mount Malarayat Golf & Country Club, a reciprocal club of ONE°15 set against the backdrop of the magnificent Malarayat mountain range.

The Mount Malarayat Golf & Country Club offers great greens, where guests can take aim while enjoying the cool mountain breeze. The 200-hectare site was developed to offer a challenging 27-hole golf course blended with the natural beauty of the area. The famous Mount Makulot Par 5 Hole Number 7 has earned several accolades, including a place as one of the "Top 500 Best Holes in the World" and "Top 200 Best Holes in Asia" as voted by Golf Magazine.

While the adults are at play, the kids can be kept entertained at the Children's Pavilion, which boasts an indoor multi-purpose play area as well as nursery and sleeping area. The little ones can also have fun under the sun at the club's outdoor children's playground, or perfect their golf swing at the putting green dedicated to young aspiring golfers. Other amenities at the club include a free-form swimming pool and kiddie pool, covered courts for basketball, tennis and badminton, a fully-equipped gym as well as 31 hotel rooms and 52 suites, where the family can rest, relax and enjoy a respite away from the metropolis.

WATERFRONT PERFECTION

Clear water, golden beaches and lush bush land. Pittwater is a pristine waterway situated between Australia's Northern Beaches peninsula and the country's second oldest national park. Operating on its shores is the Royal Motor Yacht Club (RMYC), a reciprocal club of ONE°15 widely recognised as one of Australia's premier boating clubs.

A hub for the boating community, the club offers a world-class marina for yacht owners with a total of 218 fixed berths of all sizes. Boating enthusiasts can also delight in the club's buzzing racing calendar while those who wish to pick up the hobby can enrol in the various boat license courses available. Due to its strategic location, the club also serves as the gateway to sailing Broken Bay and the Hawkesbury River, dubbed as one of the most beautiful waterways in the world. Accessible only by boat, the Hawkesbury River flows past breathtaking sandstone cliffs, idyllic bays and picturesque inlets.

Royal Motor Yacht Club welcomes not only those who own a boat, but also those who simply desire to socialise and enjoy the club's atmosphere. With such glorious water vistas, the club is an ideal place for dining with a view. Here, one is spoilt for choice when it comes to seating options. Visitors can choose to dine at Lounge Bar Terrace, Water View Terrace, Compass Terrace or out by the club's beautiful heated swimming pool, where fresh and tasty wood-fired pizzas are served at the popular CREW Pizza Bar. The casual ambience at the club, accentuated by its panoramic location overlooking the marina, surely makes RMYC a great place for whiling the hours away.

HEAVEN ON THE CLIFFS

Every country has a certain amount of natural beauty, but some happen to have more than others. One of which is New Zealand – home of the most outstanding nature landscapes unlike anywhere else in the world. Perched on the cliffs of Hawkes Bay in the North Island is The Farm at Cape Kidnappers, a luxury lodge sprawled across 6,000 acres of land.

What was once a working sheep and cattle farm has been transformed into a boutique hotel that features every creature comfort one could wish for and more. Here, guests can choose to stay in one of the 24 spacious cottage suites or the spectacular four-bedroom Owner's Cottage, each boasting spectacular views of the Pacific Ocean. Guests can go on an exclusive Kiwi Discovery Walk, to get up close and personal with New Zealand's treasured native bird. Other leisure opportunities include lavish spa treatments, conducted in the midst of the area's lush surroundings to make for an experience worth remembering. 📍
